HUGE TANKERS CLEAR CANAL OPENING DAY

Cairo (AP) — The two biggest tankers to use the Suez Canal since it was blocked last November entered the waterway at Port Said today — the first day the cleared channel was opened to ships of up to 20,000 tons.

One was the 19,418-ton Belgian tanker Elizabeth, the other the 20,776-ton Italian Fina Canada. They were bound for Middle East ports to pick up oil. Four other smaller ships were in the south-bound convoy.

The first passenger vessel to use the canal since the British-French-Israeli invasion was due at Port Said later today to begin the 103-mile trip south to Suez. The ship is the 12,839-ton Italian liner Oceania, headed for Australia with 809 passengers.

While whistles shrilled and hundreds of persons watched from the banks, U. N. salvage crews raised and towed away the sunken Egyptian frigate Abukir yesterday. That cleared the channel for all shipping adapted to its 34-foot depth.

The Egyptian Suez Canal Authority gave no indication when capacity operation would be resumed. Before the canal was blocked, ships of about 40,000 tons could go through.

The only task left for the U. N. salvage crews headed by American Lt. Gen. Raymond A. Wheeler was repair of lighting, communications and navigational aids and work on one wreck outside the channel.

The canal was reopened gradually with removal of sunken ships, damaged bridges and other debris that clogged it after the British, French and Israeli attack five months ago. Prior to removal of the Abukir, passage had been restricted to ships of 10,000 tons and less.

Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, commander of the U. N. Emergency Force, and Israeli commanders met, meanwhile, at Ashkelon, Israel, to discuss the possibility of building a mined barrier along the Gaza-Israeli border.

A joint mutual aid exercise between Chautauqua County in New York State and Warren County was planned as two Civil Defense rescue coordinators from the northern county attended a meeting of area CD rescue division personnel in American Legion Monday evening.

With local rescue director William Yeager moderating the discussion, Carleton Winchester and Norman Becker who coordinate rescue activity in Chautauqua County outlined various details of joint exercise.

Listening were 27 other rescue division men who are currently engaged in placing the new training center above North Warren into stable condition. The center is expected to be ready for use May 3rd. In the meantime, a new series of rescue division classes will be held at the Court House Annex. Sessions begin at 7 p. m. next Monday. Everyone is reminded of the work sessions which are held at the training center each evening and all day Saturday and Sunday.

Tickets Are Still Available for Symphony Orchestra Concert

There are still 100 tickets remaining for the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra concert tomorrow night at 8:15 in Beatty Auditorium which benefits the local swimming pool fund and the Youth Canteen. The citizens committee in charge of the event is hoping that there are 100 extra boosters who will purchase their tickets tonight and tomorrow so that a full house will meet the Pittsburgh Orchestra and its famed conductor William Steinberg.

Warren is one of only five communities selected this year to hear a great Symphony under the sponsorship of the Manufacturers Trust and Heat Company. All expenses of the concert are paid by the Manufacturers leaving the ticket sale proceeds to the swimming pool and youth canteen projects of the Warren Recreation Board.

Harry Logan, Jr., chairman of the citizens executive committee expressed some disappointment today because the capacity of Beatty Auditorium was not sold out already. He urged that those who have neglected to buy their admissions do so tonight and tomorrow at Redding and Whren, B and B, Mack's Newsroom, United Cigar, and the House of Bickarck. Abraham's in Youngsville and the Sheffield Pharmacy.

If there are any unsold tickets left tomorrow evening they will be on sale at the box office when the doors open at 7:30 p. m. Adult tickets are $3.00 and student admission is only $1.00.

Much Interest Is Shown in Bill That Might Force Public Vote on Proposed New High School Site

Terror was thrown into hearts of a Citizens Committee last night as Joint Committee members of Warren Area School Board discussed a possibility that pending legislation might force a public vote upon the proposed new high school building at the Swick site.

Under terms of a bill now in committee in the state legislature, before a School Authority could be formed the populace would have a chance to register its approval or disapproval at the polls.

Citizens Committee members who have repeatedly claimed the backing of multitudes of persons representing literally thousands of individuals from all walks of life and organizations, showed extreme concern at the meeting when there was discussed a distinct possibility that the public could be given a chance to vote on the proposed Ivory Tower on yonder hill.

Joint Committee president Melvin Keller, a dedicated School Board member for 20 years, said his conscience would be more at ease if the public was given an opportunity to register its final opinion on the project. Mr. Keller was the only Board member to state definitely that he favored the bill which would give the public at large a chance to vote on large expenditures when there was still time to do something about it.

However, despite apparent opposition to any public vote on the project by the Citizens Committee, there appeared to be only a slim chance that the bill would be yanked out of committee and pushed through the state legislature before the May deadline which has been talked about for adjournment.

But Citizens Committee maneuvers to keep the public from having a referendum on the subject were already underway. It was suggested at the meeting last night that the Authority which undertook Beatty School additions could legally enlarge its financial realm to include the new high school proposition.

Members of the Beatty Authority are Howard Thompson of Clarendon, Milton Peterson of North Warren, Carl Peterson of Scandia, Gifford Quiggle of Kinzua, Paul Ristau, Glenn Elliott, Cecil Winsans, Donald Curtis, all of Warren; Edward McLaughlin of Tidoute.

In other activity last night the Board approved an accelerated mathematics program which will enable Warren High School students entering college to be further ahead in their studies.

Under the new program, algebra will begin in the eighth grade, rather than ninth. This moves second year algebra studies to Grade 9, plain geometry to Grade 10, solid geometry and trigonometry to Grade 11.

New courses to begin in Grade 12 next fall will be spherical trigonometry.

Spring Storm Leaves Heavy Snow Blanket

For those who like it, there was plenty around this morning, bringing on heart attacks as it lay upon sidewalks and endangering lives on slippery highways.

Borough workmen tried to keep ahead of Old Sol as they shoveled it up and carted it off. Streets began to burble a little more turbulently as it headed for Pittsburgh.

Weather Observer Jim Reier reported ten inches on the ground but this melted fast under brilliant skies and blinding reflected sun. Total precipitation since last Thursday amounted to 3.6 inches with 7 feeting the landscape overnight.

A sudden temperature dip sent mercury to the mid-20's at 8 a. m. today but back they came.

Allegheny river behaved herself, was reported at only 8.3 feet by 1 o'clock. This figure showed little variation from the 9.6 reported earlier today but sun and runoff were expected to boost it slightly as the warm day wore on.

No flood was anticipated as Dame Winter beat a final, hasty retreat and spring once again limelighted the scene.

A spring storm appeared to have worn itself out today after covering northwestern Pennsylvania with moderate to heavy snow. One death was attributed to the weather.

The day dawned bright and clear in Erie and Meadville, two cities in the midst of the snow belt.

A U. S. Weather Bureau forecast called for light snow or snow flurries in the northwestern area with temperatures above the freezing mark.

Erie had an estimated seven to eight inches of snow on the ground following the storm that started Sunday night. The total accumulation was about 14 inches, but some of it melted yesterday.

Council Negotiates $106,662 Contract for Improvement of Streets in Warren This Year

Warren Borough Council undertook a $106,662 contract for permanent street improvements during 1957 at its April session last night in Municipal Building.

Terms of the agreement drawn up with low bidding Keystone Construction Company of Meadville call for these expenditures: $66,807 for 8-inch concrete paving of Hazel Street from Fourth to Fifth, Ludlow Street from Pennsylvania Avenue to Allegheny Avenue, Madison Avenue from Grant to Marion, McPherson Street from Conewango to Hill, Plum Street from South to Lexington; $10,307 for extra-heavy 8-inch paving of Lexington Avenue from Parker Street east; $1,032 for resurfacing Seneca Street from St. Clair to Wayne, plus another $10,000 for sewers, catch basins, sidewalks, etc.

Contract also calls for $15,906 for resurfacing Fourth Avenue from the railroad tracks east of Market Street to Beech Street. An additional clause adds $3,014 to this sum for completion of the paving from Beech to Pennsylvania Railroad tracks near Struthers-Weils. (Council members were informed that PRR and Struthers both will now repair their bone-rattling track crossings.)

Total contract entered into with Keystone Company was for $113,064. This included a bid of $9,396 for resurfacing the 2,000-foot stretch of east-west runway at Warren Airport.

Other two bidders for the paving jobs were Joseph McCormick of Erie who submitted a contract calling for $123,331, and Keibert Construction Company of Meadville which submitted a bid of $121,954.

Councilman Nick Merenick, Public Works Committee chairman, expressed his satisfaction with terms of the paving agreement, noted that some unit prices were lower than those gained last year. Council's early action on its Permanent Street Improvement Program was believed to have resulted in favorable prices.

Finance Committee Chairman M. R. Emery stated that street improvement funds now totaled only about $40,000 indicated a slight loan might be necessary later to help underwrite the program as it progresses. He added that the 1-mile assessment for street improvements would add about $13,000, said another $5,000 was yet to be received from some $60,000 assessed against property owners on streets paved last year.

It was also noted in the paving program that Council would be responsible for only half the $9,396 bid for airport runway improvements. A check for half the bid amount was reported handed to Borough Manager George Geraci-mos yesterday afternoon by Chamber of Commerce officials.

Councilman Paul Yagge, looking tan and fit from a trip to Florida, rose to thank his fellow members for placing Plum Street on the agenda of streets to be paved for this year. Councilman "Pete" Juliano beamed as announcement was made that Fourth Avenue from Beech to the railroad tracks had also been included in the program. That particular item had been one of his pets.

Councilman John Carbon called attention to the fact that an improved Fourth Avenue would increase traffic, then stated that Pennsylvania Railroad had some months ago removed its night-time

Prospective Woman Juror Has a Change of Mind

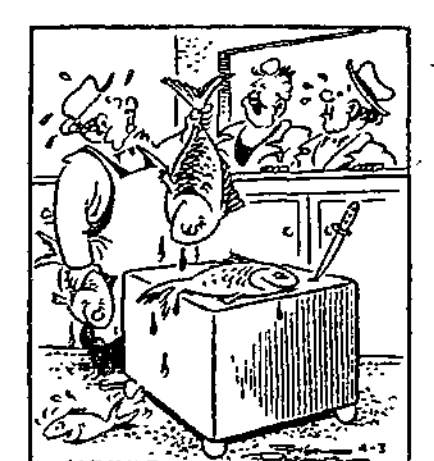

Philadelphia (AP) — A woman being screened for jury duty told Municipal Court Judge J. Sydney Homan she didn't want to serve because she doesn't believe in capital punishment.

Judge Hoffman reassured her that the case did not involve life and death.

"It is merely litigation," he said, "in which the wife is suing her husband because she says she gave him $1,000 to put down on a fur coat and he lost the money at the race track."

"I'll serve," the woman replied. "I could be wrong about capital punishment."

Reuther's Plan To Boost Dues Has Opposition

Atlantic City, N. J. (AP)—Walter P. Reuther appeared today to be in firm control of the United Auto Workers convention after winning overwhelming approval of everything he has proposed so far. But the UAW president may encounter some opposition from a minority faction fighting his proposal to increase basic union dues of $2.50 to $3 a month.

The opposition developed last night at an anti-Reuther caucus led by Carl Stellato, president of the 44,000-member Ford Rouge plant local in the Detroit area.

A long-time critic of Reuther, Stellato urged his followers to maneuver for a roll call when the dues question comes up for a vote. But he said that would take 800 of the convention's 3,200 delegates and he wasn't overoptimistic about it.

An estimated 97 per cent of the delegates approved his plan setting up a public review board to act as a watchdog on union ethical practices. The board, made up of

London Physician Is Acquitted of Murdering Widow

By JAMES F. KING

London (AP)—Dr. John Bodkin Adams was acquitted today of a charge of murdering an 81-year-old widow to get a chest of antique silver and a Rolls Royce from her estate.

Atty. Gen. Sir Reginald Manningham-Butler immediately quashed a secret indictment accusing Adams of killing a second wealthy patient last summer.

Dr. Adams was allowed to walk out of the courtroom on bail but he still has minor charges hanging over him of violating the cremation act.

The jury of 10 men and 2 women deliberated only 44 minutes in acquitting the 58-year-old bachelor society doctor. The verdict ended a 17-day hearing in London's famed Old Bailey, the longest murder trial in British history.

Adams had been arrested after a prolonged Scotland Yard investigation into rumors that he had profited from the deaths of an unusual number of his wealthy aged patients in the seaside resort of Eastbourne.

The 260-pound, Irish-born doctor heard the verdict with the same composure that he had maintained throughout the trial. He had pleaded innocent to the charge but did not take the stand in his defense.

The prosecution contended that he had pumped massive doses of heroin and morphia into Mrs. Edith Alice Morrell, turning her into a drug addict and finally ending her life.

DROPPING OF CAPITAL STOCK TAX EXEMPTIONS IS AMONG POSSIBILITIES DISCUSSED

Harrisburg (AP)—Rep. Allen M. Gibson (R-Warren) expressed doubt today the GOP can impose a 100-million-dollar budget cut. He said the difference may have to be made up by abandoning a tax break for business.

The assistant House Republican floor leader declined to go into specific figures on how far Republicans will be able to go in slicing Gov. Leader's proposed 1½ billion dollar budget for 1957-59.

"I'm sure it won't be anywhere near the 100 million dollars that some people are talking about," he told a newsman.

Asked what the GOP then would do in its effort to balance the budget without imposing new taxes, Gibson said:

"There's a possibility the capital stock tax exemption may have to be dropped."

He referred to action by the 1955 legislature to give corporations a 43-million-dollar tax break by exempting Pennsylvania manufacturers from the 5-mill capital stock tax.

This exemption has been postponed in successive sessions but so far has not been put off in the 1957 legislature. If no action is taken, the exemption will go into effect automatically next year.

Gibson was interviewed after Rep. Albert W. Johnson, House GOP floor leader, declined comment on Democratic demands that the GOP show where the budget can be reduced by 100 million dollars.

Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, Senate GOP floor leader, said last week the job of trimming the budget by 100 millions is the last big fiscal task remaining in the 1957 legislature.

Andrews, alluding to Mahany's statement, said on the House floor:

"Give us some idea of the 100-million-dollar reduction proposal. The paramount needs of the state are going to be shortchanged. Trot out just what things you propose to starve."

Chairman Norman Good (R-Lancaster) of the House appropriations Committee was asked in an interview about Mahany's statement.

"We're going to try to cut it that much," said Wood.

But he responded only with a smile when queried about his sponsorship of legislation to increase the proposed $27,713,400 appropriation for the Pennsylvania State University by more than six millions.

The House last night passed finally 173-18 a series of amendments designed to strengthen enforcement of the 3 per cent sales tax law.

The legislation dealing with complex refunds, penalty and assessment provisions went to the Senate for action.

New Castle Woman And Maid Die in Auto Crash

Millersburg, Ohio, (AP)—Two women returning from a trip to Florida, died in a head-on collision on snow-covered U. S. 62 one mile west of nearby Winnebago today.

Sheriff H. P. Weiss identified the dead as Mrs. Marie L. Johnson of 905 Highland avenue, New Castle, Pa., and her maid, Catherine Double.

Mrs. Johnson's daughter, Joya, who was driving the car, was in fair condition at Pomerene Memorial Hospital here.

Weiss said 5 to 6 inches of snow covered the highway when the Johnson car spun out of control and collided with a bakery truck. Truck driver George Haves, 43, of Haverre, escaped injury.

Mrs. Johnson was the widow of Charles H. Johnson, a New Castle banker and member of a pioneer family.

Foreign Aid To Be Discussed After Easter

Washington, (AP)—President Eisenhower plans to discuss details of the administration's 4½-billion-dollar foreign aid program with congressional leaders of both parties after the Easter recess.

This was announced at the White House today by Republican congressional chiefs after their regular weekly meeting with Eisenhower.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate GOP leader, noted that Secretary of State Dulles gave a special Senate committee a broad outline of the administration's foreign aid plans yesterday.

The President, Knowland said, wants to meet with the leaders of both parties to provide greater detail. Knowland added that such a conference will be held after the lawmakers return from an Easter recess scheduled to start April 18.

Dulles' presentation got a generally favorable reception from the lawmakers, but Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) said he would oppose any new program that might lead to "a perpetuity of spending abroad."

A number of other senators, including Fulbright (D-Ark.), and Capehart (R-Ind.), applauded, however, a proposal to set up a fund to provide loans for economic development.

C.D. To Begin House-to-House Canvass in Borough This Week

A house-to-house canvass in Warren Borough to compile information which may save lives in the event of disaster, will be started this week by Civil Defense interviewers.

David Levine, Warren CD director, said today that some interviewers would start Friday after a distribution meeting Thursday.

Each CD representative or warden will have cards to fill out, requesting the following information:

Sex and age of every person in the residence; any invalids, any infants; kind of dwelling (brick, frame, stone, etc.); floor plan of building; can any part of the building be used as emergency housing for 10 individuals; do family members possess special skills or training; is there a car; a radio in car?; a survival kit in car; first aid kit in house; emergency food supply; what emergency equipment and/or special facilities are available.

Residents are requested to cooperate fully with this survey program which could mean the difference between life and death in any natural or other disaster emergency.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

Fire department members responded to 21 calls in March, with property threatened evaluated at $18,250. Time consumed answering calls was 7 hours and 37 minutes.

Chief's new Buick station wagon was put into operation.

William J. Welsh, Jr., a veteran of nearly 10 years with the department, was re-certified by Civil Service after a go at private enterprise. (Borough Council put him back on the job with pay for a veteran of a year, paid due consideration to the fact he would not need training.)

During March, firemen spent 50 hours in drill practice and equipment maintenance. Sixteen miles were traveled answering calls.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Sanitary sewers on Walnut street, Plum street, Wilson street and 900 feet of West street were cleaned.

Madison avenue storm sewer has been cleaned from South street to Schantz street, and the same sewer from Schantz street to Prospect street is now being cleaned.

It was necessary to cinder twice during the month, using 35 yards of cinders, 19 bags of chloride and 8000 pounds of salt.

During the days when the pavements were dry the street sweeping schedule for the season was resumed.

The new borough scales have been delivered and the pit is ready to set the forms for the pouring of the foundation of the new scale.

PARKS AND PLAYGROUNDS DEPARTMENT

Snow was removed seven times from the walks of parks, playgrounds, bridges and City Building.

Flood debris has been cleaned from the Airport and the turf areas rolled.

Seven street trees were removed due to storm damage or dead trees. Three trees were topped for removal in the current street improvement program and nine smaller trees removed from the proposed curb line.

Spring clean-up has been started in some of the parks and turf areas fertilized. Flood debris has been cleaned from Beauty Field.

Street tree planting has been started this month. We hope to be able to complete planting along all the newly-paved streets this year, where it had been necessary to remove trees due to the paving. We are also planting trees in the more open areas on some of the other streets in town.

Outlay for Public Education In State Beginning To Pay Off

By JOHN KOENIG JR.

Washington (AP)—Figures compiled by the National Education Assn. indicate that Pennsylvania's large outlay for public education, which has taken up about half the commonwealth's budget in recent years, is beginning to pay off.

The statistics show that as recently as 1950 the number of school years completed by the average Pennsylvania resident was nine. The National average was at 9.3 years.

In that same year, 9.4 per cent of Pennsylvania's population 25

F.C.C. Studies Request Of United Natural Gas

Washington, (AP)—The Federal Commission is studying a request of United Natural Gas Co. Oil City, Pa., to increase wholesale rates $1,267,000 or 12 1/2 per cent annually.

The company, in submitting the request yesterday, said it would affect six wholesale customers in Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York. The company based its request in part on proposed rate hikes by its two major suppliers, the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co., of Pittsburgh and Tennessee Gas Transmission Co., Houston, Tex.

The commission recently suspended those two proposed increases until July 14 pending a hearing. United Natural asks that if its increase is granted the new rates become effective May 15.

MILL PLANS POSTPONED

The Hammernill Paper Co., of Erie, has postponed for one year plans to build a new paper mill near Franklin on the Allegheny river, the State Health department has announced. F. B. Milligan, chief of the department's Industrial Wastes section, said the information came in an "official verbal message" from Dr. Donald Jackson, technical director of the Erie company. "It is our (Health department) understanding Hammernill has postponed its building plans until the spring of 1958," Milligan told a newsmen. "But Dr. Jackson emphasized Hammernill is not abandoning plans for the new mill." Before construction starts, the company is required to submit plans for treatment of industrial wastes to the Health Department's Sanitary Water board. No plans for treatment have been submitted, Milligan said.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Editor Times-Mirror:

It is strange that the volume of water carried by the Coneyango Creek is neither measured nor the height of the water gauged.

This should be of primary importance to the citizens of Warren, because the junction of the Coneyango Creek with the Allegheny river is almost in the center of Warren.

A study of the water shed of the Coneyango Creek, reveals a large area drained in New York State. Also a study of the water shed of the Allegheny River shows the same condition. A dam near Kinzua will control some of the run off of water, but it will in no way control the water in the Coneyango Creek.

It is quite well known, that when property around Chautauqua Lake is threatened by a rise in the level of the lake, the flood gates are

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Editor Times-Mirror:

It is strange that the volume of water carried by the Coneyango Creek is neither measured nor the height of the water gauged.

This should be of primary importance to the citizens of Warren, because the junction of the Coneyango Creek with the Allegheny river is almost in the center of Warren.

A study of the water shed of the Coneyango Creek, reveals a large area drained in New York State. Also a study of the water shed of the Allegheny River shows the same condition. A dam near Kinzua will control some of the run off of water, but it will in no way control the water in the Coneyango Creek.

It is quite well known, that when property around Chautauqua Lake is threatened by a rise in the level of the lake, the flood gates are opened and the excess water added to a heavy run off causes big water and more or less damage.

Warren. We have no control over this. Because the Coneyango Creek water will still be flowing when the dam is working order it seems that it should be of interest to the people of Warren to have the water in the creek gauged (as well as the river), so precaution could be taken to protect property along the creek.

SCHOOL CHILDREN are rescued by civil defense workers at Chattanooga, Tenn., from flood waters which had marooned their school bus. Even harder hit were the three states of Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia, where 31 counties were declared a major disaster area and allocated $900,000 in Federal Civil Defense Administration disaster funds. The money will pay for emergency restoration of more than 300 bridges as well as temporary repairs to roads, schools and other public facilities destroyed or damaged by flood waters. Patients at Warren State Hospital were received at "open house," Thursday evening, upon the occasion of the reopening of their library in Center building, the library having been closed since mid-February for alterations and enlargement.

Mrs. John Urbatis, Director of Volunteers, was assisted in receiving by the librarians, Miss Ada Coe, Mrs. Elbert Mohr and Mrs. Nelson Johnson, also of the Volunteers. There was a constant stream of patients from 7:30 until 9:30.

Success Crowns Annual Drive For the Permanent Endowment Fund of Probation Association

The third annual campaign to add $5,000 to the Permanent Endowment Fund of the Warren County Probation Association has passed its goal according to an announcement made at yesterday's meeting of the Warren Rotary Club. The amount received to date for the 1956 campaign is $5,053.30.

The Rotarians were congratulated by Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr., reporting for the Youth Committee of the Rotary Club, who stated that all members of the Rotary Club had completed their solicitation and returned their cards except nine Rotarians.

Judge Flick also told members of the Rotary Club that there are still a few donors who had not been called on but were anxious to make a contribution and he suggested that the remaining solicitations be made or the cards returned to the Warren County Probation Association before the end of April. It was reported that most of the organizations in Warren County which contribute regularly to the Permanent Endowment Fund had made their contributions for the 1956 campaign. These include nearly all of the Parent-Teacher Associations, many church groups, service clubs, fraternal orders, veterans organizations, business organizations and other groups of interested persons.

Judge Flick reported that $15,000 had now been turned over to The Warren Foundation, Inc., to be held in trust as a permanent fund for the Association. He said, "The work of the Juvenile Court is only a small part of my work as President Judge of the 37th Judicial District but I feel that in many ways it is the most important work. In the same way I feel that the accomplishments of the Warren County Probation Association are a very important part of our community life although the actual number of boys and girls involved in court proceedings is small.

Clergy Exercising Opportunity Under Social Security Act

More than half of the Nation's clergymen—approximately 100,000 to date have exercised their right to come under social security as provided by 1954 amendments of the law, according to Paul W. Borneman, assistant manager, Social Security Office, Jamestown.

The amendments set a limit on the time in which a clergyman may elect to come under social security.

For most clergymen this period expires April 15, 1957.

Under the original social security law, ministers, priests, rabbis, Christian Science practitioners, and members of religious orders were exempt from the payment of social security taxes on earnings from performance of their religious duties.

The 1954 amendments permit them to waive this exemption, pay social security taxes individually as self-employed persons beginning with 1955, and earn social security benefits.

The April 15 deadline applies to those clergymen who in each of the years 1955 and 1956 had $400 or more in net earnings from self-employment, any part of which was from the performance of their religious duties. Other clergymen have a further period in which to elect to come under social security. However, for 1956 earnings to be included, this must be done by April 15, 1957.

If a clergyman elects to come under social security, he cannot, under the law, withdraw after the first social security tax under his waiver becomes due. Such waivers remain in effect and need no renewal.

In order to have his earnings count toward social security, a clergyman must file Internal Revenue Service Form 2031. This form is available from any District Director of Internal Revenue or from any social security district office.

Payment of the social security tax without filing Form 2031 does not entitle a clergyman to social security credit for his earnings from the ministry. However, a clergyman who reported and paid the tax for 1955 without filing Form 2031 may still receive credit for his earnings in that year by filing the form promptly.

Sylvania Announces Next Promotion-Of-The-Month Project

Batavia, N. Y.—Two Sylvania Softlight bulbs, with a retail value of 64 cents, will be offered free to consumers as the next Promotion-Of-The-Month by the Radio and Television Division of Sylvania Electric Products Inc.

John E. Lau, sales promotion manager for the division, said the 150-watt Softlight bulbs, manufactured by Sylvania's Lighting Division, will be given to consumers who watch a two-minute demonstration of the advantages of Sylvania's exclusive HaloLight feature on television sets HaloLight is a frame of soft surround light around the picture tube designed for greater eye comfort.

"No sale is involved in this promotion," Mr. Lau said. "The promotion is designed as a traffic builder for dealers and as a very effective method of demonstrating the advantages of HaloLight in TV viewing."

"We are inviting the general public to view this Sylvania TV feature and receive a gift of two pearl-pink Softlight bulbs that are designed for modern decorative lighting."

Mr. Lau said the promotion would be backed by announcements on Sylvania's weekly television show and in national magazine and trade advertising.

Students Are Collecting Magazines for Patients

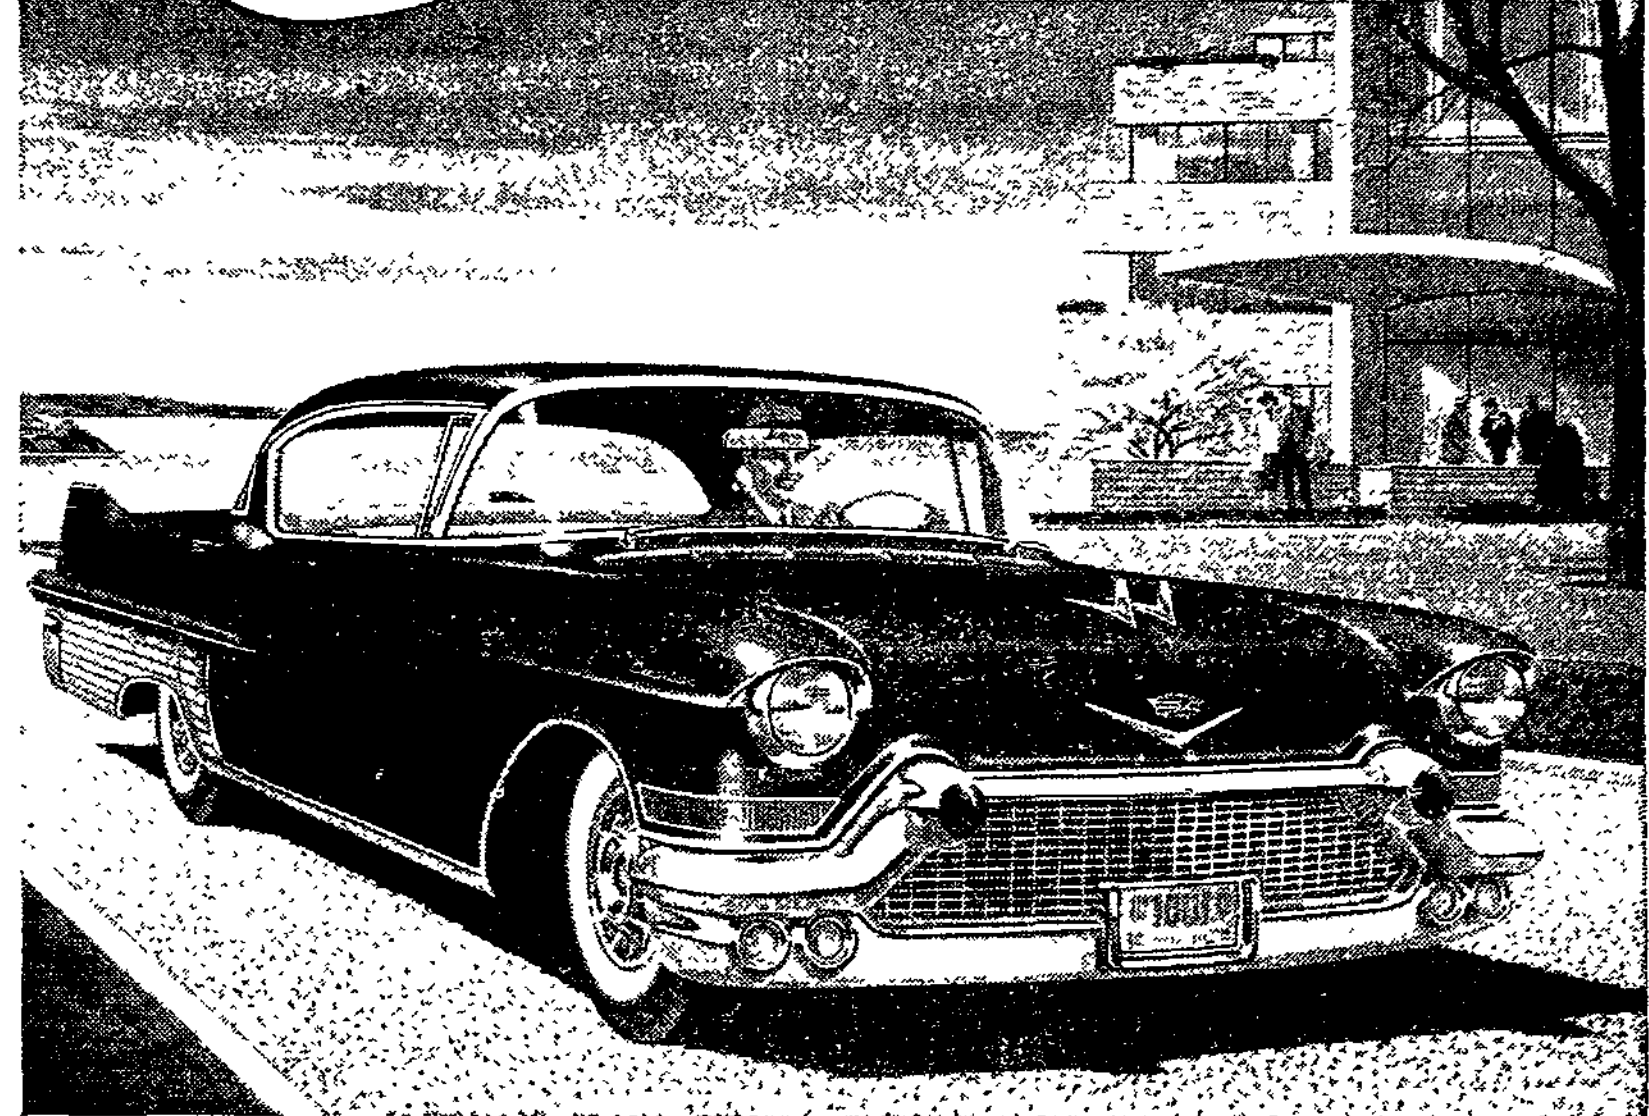

Magazines are being collected at Warren High School for patients at Warren State Hospital, who have little reading material. Promoting this very worthwhile project, the school news-writing class submits the following:

There are 3,600 patients at the State Hospital. That means if each one of the students at WHS would bring four magazines it would provide one magazine for each patient.

If you have any books you could contribute they would be greatly appreciated. Cartons will be in the front hall beginning Monday and continuing through to the Wednesday before Easter vacation. You may put your contributions in these boxes. This project is being sponsored by the National Honor Society.

PUBLIC INTEREST IN THE SCHOOLS

Considering the inclement weather that has prevailed since the start of Dedication Week officials, instructors, students and patrons of the new Dwight D. Eisenhower Schol must be intensely gratified over the interest shown by the public generally in the programs that have been presented since the National Education Association Birthday Party last Thursday evening, followed by the Warren County Band Concert Friday night, the gymnasium exhibition Saturday, open house and public inspection Sunday and last evening's Warren County Elementary Chorus and open house.

An indication of the widespread interest in school affairs may be had from the fact that a crowd estimated between 4,000 and 5,000 took advantage of the invitation extended to visit and inspect the new building Sunday afternoon between 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock.

While on the subject it would seem appropriate to extend a word of praise to school officials for the excellence of the programs that have been arranged, keeping in mind the interest of both the pupils and patrons.

SYMPHONY CONCERT

Warren will be accorded a distinctive honor Wednesday when the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra presents a concert at Beatty Auditorium at 8:15 o'clock in the evening.

Due to the fact that the demand for tickets has not been up to expectations in spite of the fact that the proceeds are being donated for local recreation projects, plenty of seats will be available at the door tomorrow evening, unless there should be an unexpected last-minute rush for reservations.

The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company is paying the costs of bringing the ninety-piece orchestra to Warren, and all proceeds from ticket sales, as stated before, will remain in the community to be added to funds for a municipal swimming pool and the youth canteen.

HATS OFF DEPARTMENT!

Today a word of commendation is due members of both the Warren Street Department and the State Highway Department for their work in clearing the roads of the accumulation of snow that fell in the area during the past few days.

Early morning motorists discovered, and many of them to their surprise, that most of the streets and highways were open, due to the untiring efforts of crews during the night.

AID TO TEACHING PROFESSION

An intensive, nationwide effort to combat the mounting shortage of teachers in the nation's colleges has been inaugurated with announcement by the Ford Foundation of a $25-million appropriation for large-scale extension and development of the National Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Program.

The Foundation's action will support a broad program to attract able college students into the academic profession and will provide graduate fellowships to potential college teachers at the rate of 1,000 a year for the next five years.

Spokesmen for several major national educational organizations have expressed enthusiasm for the new program and assurance that their respective groups will lend full support in recruitment efforts.

While passing out bouquets the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce should not be overlooked. A check for $5,000 was presented the borough Monday afternoon, which will be matched by Council for resurfacing the east-west runway at the Municipal Airport, a project that will greatly add to the service at the field.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me.—Romans 15:30.

Pray thou for me. The Common air
Will stronger, purer seem to be,
And all the world will grow more fair,—
Pray thou for me.—Mary Clemmer.

The Pennsylvania Gas Company's accident prevention program is the subject of a full-length feature in the February issue of the American Gas Association Monthly. The feature, titled "A Safety Program for a Medium-Sized Utility," tells the story of the company's formal accident prevention campaign, started less than two years ago. It also includes several pictures, including one of PGC's Jamestown employees receiving safety instructions. The program reduced the company's accident frequency by 29 per cent in 1955 and by 40 per cent last year, entitling PGC to the American Gas Association's accident prevention award two years in a row. Framed facsimiles were presented by D. E. Conaway, company president, to its division offices in western Pennsylvania and Jamestown. The cover picture on the magazine is a prize winning photo taken by Russell P. Thelin, Warren, in a company picture contest.

Night watchers have a sight to see late this month when comet Arend-Roland, discovered last November, reappears in the northeast sky. At present, the comet is about 30 million miles from the sun, and sets at about the same time, so is not visible. Astronomers predict that late this month, when the comet reappears, it will be visible to the naked eye for as much as two months. The comet's "coma," or body, is about 44,000 miles in diameter.

Washington Letter

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN and KENNETH O. GILMORE
NEA Staff Correspondents

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—U.S. ground forces in Korea will be built up and re-equipped with modern weapons some time within the next 18 months or two years.

The exact method or timing have not yet been decided on, but the move will definitely be made, it has been learned from authoritative sources.

Contrary to general opinion, the delay in modernizing U.S. forces in South Korea to match the Communist build-up in North Korea has not been due to any feeling that the United Nations must abide religiously by every letter and comma of the 1953 Korean armistice agreement.

The Red build-up north of the cease-fire line and buffer zone has given every justification for a matching reorganization of forces in the south.

The delay in modernizing U.N. forces under American high command in South Korea has been entirely a problem of logistics. Modern weapons aren't being produced fast enough to give them to everybody, all at once. This is the situation:

THE U.S. ARMY is now reorganizing all its ground forces. The 19 World War II-type triangular divisions are being converted into 17 of the new pentagonal divisions, trained for atomic and missile warfare. In this process each of the old divisions of about 18,000 men is being cut down to 13,500 men.

There are two of the old-line divisions in Korea—the 24th and the 7th. The sad fact is that they are still equipped with weapons which are no longer being produced in quantity because they are considered obsolete.

The Army would like to rotate these divisions. The only way it can be done is to replace them with newly trained divisions equipped with modern weapons. The problem is that reassignment of new divisions to Korea must wait on the supply and training of all divisions with the new weapons.

When the time comes for making the switch, the liberal interpretations which the Communist forces in North Korea have applied to Article 13-D of the armistice agreement will be used by the United States.

The Communists simply declared that the weapons which were used in the Korean war are now obsolete. In rotating troops, the Reds then moved in units armed with new weapons. Rotation of up to 35,000 men a month is authorized by the armistice agreement.

THE UNITED STATES is at liberty to follow the same pattern. Careful timing is of course necessary. The case will have to be presented to America's allies in Korea and to the United Nations, to get their formal approval. Then the transfer can be announced to the Armistice Commission, which still meets on call at Panmunjom.

Rotation of retrained and modernized American ground forces into Korea can be handled without any formal repudiation of the armistice, it is now believed.

Not generally understood is the fact that there are more disadvantages to repudiating the armistice than there are to keeping it. After all, the armistice has stopped the shooting for nearly four years. It has preserved a neutral zone, in which there have been only minor violations from time to time.

If the United States and United Nations abrogated the armistice on the theory that the Communists had violated it, North and South Korea might soon be at each other's throats and restart the war.

Maplewood Rebekahs at Sugar Grove Celebrate Their 50th Anniversary

Sugar Grove-Maplewood Rebekah Lodge celebrated the 50th anniversary of its institution as an organization on Thursday evening, Mrs. Merle Devereaux presiding and welcoming visitors. Guests were present from Warren, Meadville, and Bear Lake.

Mrs. Catherine Carr, member of Lalac Rebekah Lodge at Bear Lake at that time and one of those who helped to start the institution, is now a member of the local group and related briefly some interesting experiences of years gone by.

Mr. Gape, superintendent of the Meadville IOOF Home, and five of his boys, Richard Lincoln, Albert Everett, Buch Monroe, Marty Dardao and Gerald Desconson, were guests and showed pictures of the Home, its personnel and activities.

Musical numbers enjoyed included a duet by Deanne and Darlene Carlson, with accordion accompaniment by Emma Carlson; duet, Susan and Anne Marie Carlson; orchestra music by the Johnson family, Hazel at the piano, with Verne and sons, Richard and Fred-eric.

The Rev. James M. Fisher, of the First Presbyterian church, gave the invocation and benediction.

Buffet refreshments were served in the dining room from a table centered with a three-tiered anniversary cake. Spring flowers added a gay note to decorations.

Committees serving for the event were: General, Mrs. Clarence Sherrard, Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. Devereaux, refreshments, Mrs. Norman Abbott, Mrs. Howard Curtis and Mrs. Harold Hobson.

Mrs. Wheeler Presiding At Garden Club Sessions

When District VIII, Garden Club Federation of Pennsylvania, holds its fourth annual meeting at Meadville on Friday of this week, Mrs. Alexander Wheeler of West Hickory, district director, will be presiding.

The coffee hour, registration, morning meeting and seminars will be held in the YWCA, 378 Chestnut street; a Lenten luncheon will be served at 1:00 in Stone Methodist church, one block away.

Mrs. Wheeler will continue to preside in the afternoon, when there will be a 2:15 panel discussion; a 2:45 illustrated lecture on "Conservation" by Mrs. J. Franklin Robinson, first vice president of the State Federation.

Formal Wedding Gowns Reflect New Style Trends

Gone Is the Clumsy, Heavy Dress of Past

BY GAILE DUGAS, NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The fashion trends of the season are reflected in the beautiful formal bridal gowns ready for the bride of late spring or summer.

Most significant change from the gowns of the past is that a bride can now have a romantic and picturesque gown that's a froth of lace and silk without enduring the weight and clumsiness of formal bridal gowns in past years.

The new gowns are shaped over a drift of net, organza or the synthetics, artfully maneuvered to keep their freshness while composing a pretty picture.

All of fashion's changes are reflected: The slim sheath (balled from knee to floor for the formal line), the dome skirt, the shirtwaist dress, the outright sheath with slim train, the lacy camisole top.

Even chiffon, the big spring fashion, is reflected in the formal bridal gown by means of the set-in cummerbund, inserts, floating scarves and pretty beaded bodices.

The uneven hemline, sometimes ending in a train, appears in the very formal gown. So does the capped shoulder, the obisash, the covered-up look and the bateau neckline.

Favored fabric for the formal gown is, of course, lace. It's used alone or in company with pleated silk chiffon, silk-faced taffeta, organza, batiste, or pure silk taffeta.

The bridal headdress looks more like a miniature hat this year. Big, flat bows of silk and satin make lovely caps from which a veil, shoulder-length or full-length, can float.

The essential ingredient in picking the right wedding dress is, of course, planning. It's important not only to find a dress that will make you look pretty but to allow enough time for fittings, changes and adjustments.

This is the way to avoid those last-minute crises that send a bride, her whole family and some bridal consultant into a tizzy. With proper planning, a crisis is impossible—or almost impossible.

The lace mantilla is shown as a bridal headdress in combination with a very formal gown of tinted beige silk satin. Dress has simple, elegant lines and a sculptured look as foil for the lace. The very deep folds of the skirt end in a formal train.

Bill's Fear: That You Can't Love Kids Who Filch Icing

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

YOUR four-layer cake stands on your kitchen table, finished, its chocolate icing still warm. Pleased with yourself, you are turning to your sinkful of dishes when the telephone rings.

On your return the first thing you notice is the smudge of chocolate on the cake plate you left so carefully clean. Next, you see the gouge in the icing where someone has scooped out a finger full, and then tried to repair the damage by spreading icing inward from the edges.

You go to the kitchen door. To the seven-year-old apparently intent on shinning up your clothes line post, you say, "Bill, were you at my chocolate cake?"

He doesn't turn his head. But his voice is much too consciously surprised as he says, "Why no, Mom—did you make one?"

UNDER your irritation at him, panic begins to stir. You think with revulsion, "This child is lying to me!"

Your problem is the panic and revulsion that infuse this thought for you.

For like your own childhood's lies, this one your son has just told you is motivated not by sin but by his innocent wish to retain your love. He has told you that he has not touched your cake because somehow, some time you have given him the impression that you cannot love children who touch chocolate cakes.

It is that simple. His lie is his mistaken, inexperienced, unacceptable, but absolutely uneviled defense against your ill will.

If you can feel this is truth, all wish to attack his lie leaves you.

YOU can appreciate these words of psychoanalyst Dr. Irene M. Josselyn in her book, "The Happy Child." She writes: "All individuals, including children, have a right to their defenses until more adequate techniques for handling situations are available. Fighting the child's adaptive attempts can be just as destructive as overacceptance of them."

In place of the wish to deprive him of his defense, you wish only to show him that he needs none. With genuine love you will find yourself saying, "Why, Bill, you don't have to steal icing as though wanting it were a bad thing. I love you to like my icing. Next time you want some, be a sensible boy—and give me a chance to give it to you."

General Hospital, and asks that each church group discuss it. Mrs. Webster Sechrist, treasurer, reported $19.50 has been used for State dues this year, $5.00 for National dues and $17.50 for supplies. Devotions were given by Mrs. Carl Lundahl, member of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Mrs. Ward Lauffenberger, of the Salvation Army, introduced Mrs. Robert Johnson, who brought a message in her solo, "Standing Somewhere in the Shadows." Mrs. Grace Lindquist, of Glenwood Evangelical United Brethren church of Erie, reviewed "A Time To Remember" and closed with a group of prayer-poems.

Those present were invited to the dining room for refreshments, with grace sung by the entire group. The associating groups serving were St. Paul's Lutheran church and the Salvation Army.

Abigail's Problems Are Junior Play Highlight

Having suered for 35 years with the name Abigail Fortitude Abbott, one of the principal characters in the Warren High School junior class play decides her sufferings are finally due to pay off when she learns she is eligible for a scholarship available to any girl whose first two names are Abigail Fortitude.

She enters Pointer College as a freshman and, as one might expect, runs into a great many difficulties. Her first is Dean Gillingham. Getting off to a bad start with him, he threatens to expel her if she does not strictly obey the college rules.

Another of her difficulties is the Zoology teacher, Professor Michaels. All the girls on the campus are attracted to his classes and Abigail is no exception.

As the play progresses, things get pretty tough, but the best way to really understand what happens is to make plans immediately to see "Mother Is a Freshman" when it is staged by the junior class cast on Thursday and Friday evenings, 8:00 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

Tickets, at 30 cents each, may be obtained at the door or from any of the following ticket committee members:

Reservations may be made by calling 2461.

Sloppy Look Is Out for Teens

The teen-ager who wants to look like a girl is the one who confines the blue-jean, sloppy-sweater routine to her room (left). She's caught on to the fact that boys prefer girls who look as if they took some trouble about dressing, girls who are feminine. Shopping for spring shoes (center), she picks good-looking.

high-style flats in soft leather for both school and dress wear. Ready for Friday night at the movies, she wears (right) a slim leather flat that's soft as a glove on her foot. It has the new tapered toe and trim of open white buckle. Flats are ideal for her shoe wardrobe since they give her both fashion and comfort.

BY ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor

NOT too long ago, a peek through the window at any gathering of teen-age girls would make you wonder where the scrubbing brushes and pails were hidden.

Club meeting, party, dance—it made little difference. Everyone looked like a member of a cleaning crew. The uniform was a sloppy sweater, rolled-up jeans, and dirty saddle shoes. Somewhere along the line, you teenagers missed learning about the fun of dressing to look pretty, and good grooming was considered the badge of the "square".

But recent surveys show that teenagers are developing a sincere interest in being attractively dressed and well groomed.

There are many smart-looking separates that can be mixed and matched for school wear or an informal date at a friend's home or a movie. Their use is unlimited when a gay scarf or pretty costume jewelry is added. And no one can deny that they're nicer to look at than blue jeans.

Foot doctors are pleased to see saddle shoes and sneakers relegated to occasional wear, for their shape became distorted from constant use. Since bones aren't fully formed until the age of 21, these distorted shoes, in turn, caused distorted feet.

You don't have to give up "flats" in order to look attractive. But this year you've been dressed up for you in smart styles. As a matter of fact, they're not exactly flat. Most of them have a small heel—about a half inch. And all will keep their shape.

When you shop for shoes remember that health authorities advise that all shoes for steady wear should be leather throughout.

Since you turned from the slovenly mode of dress, you'd probably like to acquire a little of that precious something called glamor.

One way to capture it is to realize that there's witchery in color. Don't hide a sparkling personality with drab, dull colors. But if you're quiet and demure, don't overpower your personality with brilliant colors. Soft shades are for you.

Above all, remember that fashionable clothes alone don't make the fashionable lady. It takes faithful adherence to the rules of good grooming and good health. It requires time and effort. But the wise teen-ager who is beauty conscious will be the first to admit that it pays off in popularity.

ANNA MILLER CLASS

When the Anna Miller Bible Class of First Baptist church was entertained recently at the home of Mrs. E. W. Williams, Prospect street, the following were elected as officers: President, Mrs. Milton Wheeler; vice president, Mrs. Myrna Siefert; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Williams; assistant secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. J. Mitchell; teacher, Mrs. Wayne H. Branch; assistant teacher, Mrs. Pearl Kabelein.

STONEHAM AID

Mrs. Hazel Vesling and Mrs. Mae Jackson will entertain the members of Stoneham Ladies' Aid at the Community House on Thursday at 1:30 o'clock. A large attendance is hoped for.

Gathered From The Party Line

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Myers, Buchanan street, have returned by plane from Miami, Fla., where they spent two weeks with their son, Stuart Myers, and family.

Mrs. Helen Roberts, Times-Mirror correspondent at Barnes, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mitchell, of Spring Creek, left Saturday for Tucson, Ariz. Mrs. Roberts will visit her brother, Otto Barnes, and the Mitchells will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Messenger.

Mrs. Faye Beckenbach and her sister, Miss Katherine Agnew, with Mrs. Blanche Kirkham, are back in Youngsville after a pleasant two months in Florida.

Mrs. Mary Kwiatkowski and four children, Pittsfield, visited over the weekend with their husband and father, Joe Kwiatkowski, who is recovering from major surgery performed in Cleveland Clinic Hospital. They report him much improved, although he will be obliged to remain in the hospital for another ten days. Friends may write him at the following address: Fourth Floor, Room 404, Cleveland Clinic Hospital, Cleveland, O.

Another instance in which the snowstorm has caused a change in plans is learned in a conversation with Mrs. Richard Hansen, president of the Erie Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary. Edith A. Booth, deaconess-in-charge of the Central House for Deaconesses for the Episcopal Church at Sycamore, Ill., was held up when her plane reached Erie and was unable to join Mrs. Hansen for district meetings scheduled in the diocesan area this week.

No Poet Has Ever Penned Women's Spring Thoughts

WELL, here it is spring again And nary a poet has ever written what spring means to a woman.

And no wonder. Unlike a young man's fancy in springtime, a woman's thoughts are a little on the prosaic side.

Take off 10 pounds before she goes shopping for spring and summer clothes. Take off more if she plans to buy a new bathing suit.

Get the curtains down and the windows washed. Get out the rake, the garden spray, the old blue jeans and go to work fighting weeds, bugs, blight, fallen leaves, since flowers aren't the only things that thrive on spring rains and sunshine.

Room by room, closet by closet, and drawer by drawer tackle the job of spring housecleaning. Some hoarding instinct seems to make families cling to all sorts of useless possessions during the winter months. But in the light of spring, many of them fortunately lose their charm and can safely end up in the garbage can.

GET SOMETHING NEW

GET a new hairdo, new shade of lipstick or a new perfume—but get something to feel more glamorous, just because it's spring. Drag out last year's tired, limp wardrobe and see what can be made of it for another season of wear. Shorten or lengthen a hemline, add a new belt here, a bright scarf there, and what have you got? Not much, maybe, but something to start out with.

It all sounds drab and dreary compared with what the poets write of spring.

But it isn't, actually. It's just helping spring along with a woman's tidy hand and her need to always be prepared for every season and every occasion.

A. P. Writer Picks Milwaukee To Be Tops in National League

By JOE REICHLER
New York (AP)—The strongest pitching staff in the National League, a well-balanced power attack and a burning desire to atone for their frightful 1956 fall collapse should combine to bring the Milwaukee Braves their first championship.

It's not going to be easy. The Braves have weaknesses at second base, left field and in the bullpen. Position for position, they are not as set as either Brooklyn or Cincinnati. The feeling here is, however, that Manager Fred Haney's Braves will outlast the Dodgers and Redlegs because:

1. There is a very good chance Milwaukee will complete a deal with New York for second baseman Red Schoendienst.
2. Brooklyn will badly miss retired Jackie Robinson.
3. Cincinnati hasn't been able to bolster its weak pitching staff.

No other club appears capable of offering any serious resistance. The St. Louis Cardinals have a better looking team than last year but they still have a grave problem in center field and are not too secure in other positions. Pittsburgh is another improved club, but the Pirates are shy on power and have only two reliable pitchers.

The Philadelphia Phillies have potent pitching but little else. The New York Giants, stripped by Uncle Sam of their young stars, are attempting to plug the vacancies to ease the strain a bit for Willie Mays. Chicago has Bob Scheffing, a new manager, unfortunately, he is not a playing manager.

How they'll finish in the National this year:

- 1 Milwaukee
- 2 Brooklyn
- 3 Cincinnati
- 4 St. Louis
- 5 Pittsburgh
- 6 Philadelphia
- 7 New York
- 8 Chicago

Onetime Middleweight To Be Strictly Actor

New York (AP)—From now on Walter Cartier is strictly an actor. The onetime middleweight contender hung up his gloves today, ending a brief fling in a double career of television acting and boxing.

Handsome Walter announced his retirement from the ring after suffering a deep cut over the right eye last night in losing on a third-round technical knockout to Jackie LaBua, East Meadow, N. Y. in a telecast bout at St. Nicholas Arena.

The 33-year-old New Yorker, who portrays Pfc. Claud Dillingham in Phil Silvers' Sgt. Ernie Bilko television show, said, "I just don't have it. I could see that right away."

Outwardly, Cartier, at 159 1/2, looked in fine shape. But he was slow and his reflexes were shot. At that he was even with the 24-year-old, 157 1/4-pound LaBua through the three rounds.

PITCHING LINE—A lot of people are counting the New York Giants out, but these and other pitchers, including Johnny Antonelli, will have something to say about that. They are, left to right, Ruben Gomez, Max Surkont, Al Worthington, Curt Barclay, Marv Grissom, Gordon Jones and Steve Ridzik. Barclay is up from Minneapolis. Jones from Omaha.

MAKING A PITCH FOR CATCHING—Dishing out good advice for rapt kids in the dugout, Roy Campanella shows how a catcher sets himself to receive a pitch. The youngsters are all eyes and ears, and the Brooklyn backstop is wide awake, too, as he prepares his comeback.

STRIKING PERFORMANCE—As the Dodgers headed for home, Johnny Podres started to turn it on, as he showed here in exhibition game with Cincinnati. The left-hander, back from service, is a big man on Brooklyn's staff.

Plight of First Line Pitchers Is Worry to Brooklyn Manager

By MIKE RATHET
The Associated Press

Manager Walter Alston of the Brooklyn Dodgers has been singing a confident tune this spring, but the plight of his first-line pitchers could find him whistling the blues.

Not one of Alston's big four—Roger Craig, Don Newcombe, Sal Maglie and Johnny Podres—has gone nine innings in a grapefruit league game.

Podres, released from the Navy because of a bad back, has managed to stick around for seven innings. Newcombe has gone six three times, Maglie has gone six and Craig has reached five.

But the Dodger skipper maintains "It's not necessary for a man to go nine in these games," and figures his twirlers will be ready for the season opener a week from today.

Craig was bounced in the second inning for a pinch hitter yesterday after giving up five runs in the first as the Dodgers bowed to the Milwaukee Braves 8-5 at Oklahoma City.

It was the Braves' fourth consecutive success over the Dodgers and over-all gave them a 6-2-1 record against the defending National League champions.

Elsewhere, Boston's Red Sox ended a six-game losing streak by defeating Pittsburgh 8-7 in 10 innings at Fort Myers, Fla.; Chicago's White Sox shut out St. Louis 3-0 at Charlotte, N. C.; Philadelphia downed Detroit at Clearwater 6-4; the New York Giants edged Cleveland 3-1 in a game held to five innings by rain at Mobile, Ala.; and Baltimore beat Chicago's Cubs, 6-5.

Milt Bolling hit a homer in the 10th for Boston's victory.

Celtics Standing At the Crossroads in National Playoffs

Boston (AP)—The Boston Celtics stand at the crossroads tonight in their National Basketball Assn. playoff game with St. Louis.

Boston never has had the lead in the best-of-seven series against the Hawks to date but has managed to rally twice. The teams are locked in a 2-2 standoff.

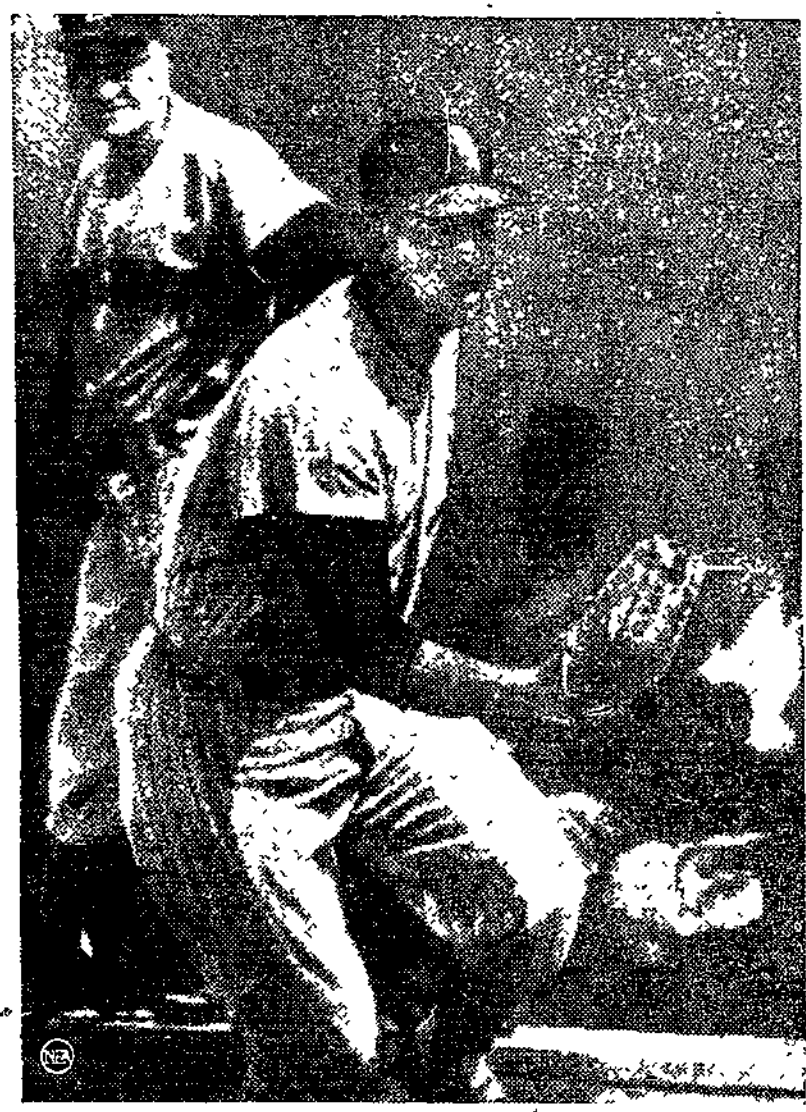

Bidding for their first championship in the 11-year history of the NBA, favored Boston must make its bid now.

If the Celtics lose tonight in friendly Boston, Garden, they would be prime candidate for elimination in St. Louis Thursday. St. Louis can lose tonight and be in a favorable position to tie things up again at home.

Hometown fans hope that the improvement in the play of backcourt ace Bob Cousy and rookie pivot sensation Bill Russell will assure a triumph.

Cousy tallied 31 points—including 11 field goals—in the team's 123-118 victory at St. Louis Sunday.

Grayson's Scoreboard

BOSTON—(NEA)—Johnny Buckley has been back promoting fights in Boston for no longer than six months, but he already has shown how clever matchmaking can still set up profitable shows.

This is something agents of the International Boxing Club don't seem to understand.

Buckley brought back Tony DeMarco and paired his Walter Byars against a "man-killer" to enable Boston to retain its title as boxing's best box-office town in the country.

In that way, he played to $60,000 with DeMarco and Indian Gaspar Ortega, $81,000 with DeMarco and Larry Boardman and expects to do $100,000 with DeMarco and Byars in late April or early May.

BUCKLEY, WHO MANAGED Jack Sharkey to the heavyweight crown, once more crashed the promotional picture when Sam Silverman broke with the IBC after a violent dispute about blacking the home base out of telecasting on Wednesday or Friday night. He succeeded Silverman, who fought TV, as Rip Valenti's partner.

Valenti manages DeMarco, so when the former welter ruler tackles Byars, it will be a strictly home-town and house fight.

"When DeMarco returned to Boston after twice losing to Ortega at Madison Square Garden," recalls Buckley, "he was as dead as an old phonograph record. I knew Tony had to get another crack at Ortega, and figured that he could beat the Mexican with his home-town followers rooting him in. So I went to New York and got Jim Norris to release Ortega for the third match."

BUCKLEY THEN MATCHED Byars with Sugar Garnett Hart at Madison Square Garden. Hart, who had stiffened seven in a row, had scared away other welters. They were calling him another Sugar Ray Robinson. He also frightened Johnny Woods, who trains Byars.

When Woods, who boxed for Buckley as a lightweight, heard about the match, he rushed to the boss.

"J. B., what have you done?" he said, excitedly. "You've matched this boy with a man-killer."

"Well, Johnny," said Buckley, "Walter's going to get married in June, and might take it into his head to retire."

"Retire!" shouted Woods. "He'll never live to retire. This is going to be homicide. I'm going to tell his mother and father."

"I managed you," Buckley reminded Woods. "How much did you wind up with?"

"Nothing," recoiled Woods.

"Sure," said Buckley, "because every time I got you a fight, they had to fumigate the joint. I could never take you back."

"Byars can fight, and I'm going to put him in Madison Square Garden and on national television and get him some money."

BUCKLEY THREE YEARS ago saw Hart knocked down in two different bouts in the National Amateur Athletic Union tournament. He knew that the new Sugar Man had been knocked out early in his professional career. He doubted that he could take a punch any two well.

Pirates Leaving Fort Myers With A Record of 17-8

Fort Myers, Fla. (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates expressed satisfaction with both their record and "home" attendance here today as they broke camp and headed by train for Atlanta, Ga., where they'll meet the Detroit Tigers tomorrow.

The Pirates, who will play the Tigers five games before opening the National League season, left here with an 17-8 record in the "Grapefruit League". Their attendance at Fort Myers reached 20,018 and they already have signed a contract to return here the next two years.

The Pirate - Tiger tour winds up April 14 at Charleston, W. Va.

Meanwhile, the Pirates have trimmed their roster to the 28-player limit for opening of the season.

They cut the squad yesterday by adding one player and dropping four others.

Pitcher Bob Kuzava, a 33-year-old southpaw, was purchased by the Pirates from the minor league affiliate, Columbus of the International League.

Released on 24-hour option were catcher Harding Peterson and pitcher Cholly Naranjo, who were sent to Columbus, and pitchers Don Kildoo and Laurin Pepper, who went to the Pirates' Hollywood club in the Pacific Coast League.

The Pirates purchased Kildoo's contract from Hollywood so he could be placed on the 24-hour recall basis.

Dates Announced for "Fisherman's Paradise"

Harrisburg (AP) — The Trout season at "Fisherman's Paradise" in Spring Creek, Centre County, will begin May 17 and close July 20.

The State Fish Commission set the dates yesterday and listed regulations for fishing along the favorite trout stream.

William Voigt Jr., executive director of the commission, said the Paradise had not been affected by pollution last November upstream.

He said that although the fish kill, caused by chemicals from a laboratory on the Pennsylvania State University campus, was heavy in the stream above Paradise there was no harm to the big trout at Paradise.

The fishing season in other streams opens April 15 and closes Sept. 2.

Dayton Beach, Fla. (AP) — Still lacking a third baseman, Kerby Farrell, Cleveland Indians' manager, is keeping a worried eye on first base following the injury of Vic Wertz in Sunday's game with the New York Giants.

Wertz suered a bruised knee after sliding into catcher Valmy Thomas but is expected back in action in a day or two.

Farrell's problem is who plays first if the 32-year-old Wertz should be forced to the sidelines during the regular season which opens next week.

Preston Ward, the most likely candidate, is on the disabled list with a knee injury suffered last season.

Underdog Barons Hoping for Upset In Final Playoffs

Cleveland (AP) — The underdog Cleveland Barons are hoping for an upset in the final playoff series for the American Hockey League's Calder Cup with the Rochester Americans, which opens tonight at the Cleveland Arena.

The Barons, however, will have to do their winning at the Arena if the series follows the pattern of regular season games, between the two teams.

Cleveland has not won a game at Rochester, where the league franchise is brand new this season. In 12 games with the Americans the Barons won four—all on the Arena ice—lost six and the other two were tied.

The teams tied for second place in the league in points for the season, but Cleveland won the runner-up spot behind Providence by one more victory than Rochester, 35 to 34.

Rochester goes into the finals with nearly a week's rest, having disposed of Providence, last year's playoff champion, four games to one in a first round series that ended last Thursday. Cleveland and Hershey battled down to the wire in the other first round series, which the Barons won with a 3-3 overtime victory in the seventh game here Sunday.

Martinez Finishes Second Best to the Flashy Ralph Dupas

By ED TUNSTALL

New Orleans, (AP)—Foxy Jack Kearns, a shrewd judge of boxing in anybody's book, conceded today Ralph Dupas is "one of the best lightweights in the world," but disagreed with the decision giving the New Orleans dandy his victory over high-ranked welterweight Vince Martinez.

Kearns, who steered Jack Dempsey to the heavyweight title almost 40 years ago, was in Martinez's corner last night when the handsome Paterson, N. J. puncher finished second best to Dupas in 10 rounds.

Martinez opened a deep gash in the corner of Dupas' left eye in the third round and the wound harassed him the rest of the bout.

But Martinez failed to capitalize on the injury and allowed the 21-year-old Dupas, rated sixth among lightweight challengers, to regain his composure in the middle rounds. The quicker Dupas continually beat Martinez to the punch, with most of the attack centering on Martinez's midsection.

Dupas' aggressiveness and cat-like reflexes paid off in swinging the nod to him. He weighed 141½, Martinez, 146½.

Dupas brushed aside any discussion on the racial furor centering around him last week when a Plaquemines Parish, La., woman accused him of having Negro parents.

"Fly Fishing Only" Stretches On 15 Streams In Penn'a

The approval of "fly fishing only" stretches on 15 Commonwealth streams under a uniform set of regulations have been announced by William Voigt, Jr., Executive Director of the Commission. The regulations were adopted late last year after a multiplicity of special regulations previously in effect on about a score of the state's waters were abolished.

The only stream listed for "fly fishing only" in northwestern Pennsylvania is North Sandy Creek in Venango county, two miles upstream from Route 62 in the vicinity of Polk.

The establishment of fly fishing only areas, following the requests by sportsmen's groups and property owners, sets aside approximately 52 miles of the state's streams whereon only artificial flies and streamers and conventional fly fishing may be used. Throughout the Commonwealth there are now approximately 4,505 miles of approved trout streams. Final disposition of several other applications for similar facilities elsewhere awaits additional information, according to Voigt.

The director also stated that the Commission will entertain any other requests for such water areas submitted by sportsmen's groups directly or through the district fish wardens, provided landowners agreements accompany the applications.

The new regulations will become effective with the opening of the 1957 trout season at 5:00 A. M., April 15. The streams' portions affected will be posted with signs setting forth the regulations as follows:

1. Fishing may be done only with artificial flies and stream-

"Happy Easter" Is Theme Expressed in Latest Dragonette

"A Happy Easter" is the wish expressed by the seasonally-illustrated Warren High School Dragonette just fresh off the presses today and a real credit to Editor Marilyn Haer and her news and production staff.

Much of the front page is given over to promotion of the junior class play, "Mother Is a Freshman", to be given in the school auditorium Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. Also on this page are the Choraleers' participation in the County Choir Festival April 29 and the Y-Teen Easter chapel next Monday evening.

Among other groups given prominence are the FHA banquet, FTA trek to Edinboro, plans for an illustrated article, and a speakers' district rifle meet.

Robert R. Young is paid tribute in an illustrated article, an ad special welcome is extended to the Class of 1960. For the benefit of these new sophomores, activities are outlined, courses of study are presented, and a visit to the guidance office is suggested for their further information.

In addition to these specials there are the usual columns that go to make up every well-rounded Dragonette.

A statement of whether to oppose or submit to these will be forthcoming at the May meeting probably, said Miller. WWC wants a 40 percent boost (or 67 cents per month more on the average bill). MLH wants a 12 1/2 percent boost (or 74 cents a month for average non-heating customers, $1.80 a month for average heating customers). Council took no action on a recent Pennsylvania Gas Company demand for a rate increase which, when approved Feb. 28 gave a 50c boost monthly to average non-heating customers, 85 cents for heating customers. (PUC cut in half after a lengthy fight by Erie a proposed boost of $1 and $1.50 respectively.)

Councilman James Frantz, speaking for Civil Defense Committee chairman David Levine, read and had adopted a resolution authorizing execution of agreement with Warren Bank and Trust Company for erection of a siren now in place on the roof. Council will pay for electricity, insure against any injuries and vibration damage, and agreed to remove the "Thunderbolt" within 30 days if requested.

Burgess William E. Rice brought into open session the fact that blacktopping of Third avenue had not taken completely last year in the rain and that the resurfacing would be done by Battin Blacktopping Company when good weather (which they did not have last summer) arrived, if it did. (Burgess Rice peered from Council Chamber windows as he spoke, undoubtedly seeing eight inches of snow covering the street.)

His specific request was that was to become of plastic parking spaces and pedestrian lane markers. Borough Engineer said in his

Municipal Airport Gets Boost From C. of C.

Warren Area Chamber of Commerce officials this week turned over to Borough Manager George Geracimos (second from left) a check for $1,625 which represents the Chamber's half of $9,396 which will be expended for resurfacing the 2,000-foot east-west Airport runway landing strip and repair its ends. opinion the company would supply new ones, probably at a cost of about $300. The borough was testing the white delineators with an eye to using them for all street markings if their mettle was proved.

Highlight of the meeting came during recess.

While bids were considered, Park Supervisor Jim Reier retired to an ante-chamber with several recessed Council members and showed slides on the progress of his park department activities during the past year, inserting some idle "politicizing" entree.

While Burgess Rice made several striking observations about recessive genes in the Fourth Ward, Mr. Reier took Council on a tour of all the playgrounds, including the new Mulberry street area (which was called a fine site for a new high school); showed power mowers of the 80-inch and 76-inch blade variety used to keep the grass trim on 112 acres of sod in the borough entrusted to the park department; showed an informal "in-service planning session" which came up with time saving ideas for moving bleachers (which have their Men Field location switched eight times a year); showed park department members poaching trees from unused lumber plots; showed several shots of Tom Tomassoni, master of the high lift; and concluded an interrupted session by pointing out the many ways that automation saves the borough expensive manpower hours, not failing to include in the topic a classic shot of the most content pie-eating contest winner that ever there was.

that Democratic lawmakers contended would "cripple" a Welfare Department program for college training of professional mental health workers.

Parochial School Buses — Rep William Renwick (D-Erie) sponsored legislation which would empower public school districts to carry parochial school children in the public school buses.

Administration Program — Mahany said it was up to the committees in the Legislature to act on more than 30 administration measures on which Gov. Leader urged action before the Assembly adjourned.

Taxes — The House concurred

195-0 in minor Senate amendments to a plan to continue for another two years the corporate net income tax at 6 per cent.

Under the measure, the rate drops automatically to 5 per cent June 1, 1959. It would remain permanent at 5 per cent. This levy has been temporary since it was first enacted in 1935. It would yield $14 million dollars in the next two years.

But the House refused to concur in a plan to continue the 1 per cent real estate transfer plan for two more years because the Senate inserted what was termed a loophole in the law.

Gibson said the Senate amendment—exempting property transferred to a trustee, instead of a mortgagee from the tax—could open the door to tax evasion.

It is expected the new courses of more advanced instruction, beginning earlier, will help smooth the way for a more placid start session by pointing out the many ways that automation saves the borough expensive manpower hours, not failing to include in the topic a classic shot of the most content pie-eating contest winner that ever there was.

Committee members also asked for bids for remodeling the present high school third floor, work to be done by school employees.

The Joint Committee also:

Accepted the resignation of James Johnson as assistant basketball coach.

Named Dan Stimmell and Thomas Krusty as assistant football coaches for the coming season.

Approved use of Beatty Auditorium January 18, 1958 for Barber-shoppers "Night of Harmony" next year.

Paid bills amounting to $32,465, including $28,789 as semi-annual payment to the Authority; $513 for electricity and $541 for coal during March. $600 to YMCA for once-a-week swimming instruction for about 100 WHS students;

Approved Dan Goldthwaite's leave of absence for a year of study on a science scholarship at State College;

Reported 14 boys had shown interest in agricultural programs offered at Northern Area and Brookston, gave tentative approval for one Beatty boy to attend;

Noted that Cortez Fisk, state education department examiner, had given approval of the room scheduling at Beatty school after improvements; Dr. Carl E. Whipple may be requested to go to Harrisburg for a final reckoning of reimbursement percentages;

Gave permission to Miss Kathryn Martin to act as judge at state meeting of Pennsylvania Music and Forensic League in Bethlehem April 25-27; Anna Jane Hawkins and George Fritz to take groups to state Future Business Leaders Association convention in Bradford May 2-3; Jerome Paul and Thomas Krusty to attend survey property distribution in Harrisburg April 29;

Noted that 94 percent of 3,707 pupils had attended classes in March;

Approved Miss Kay Evan as high school secretary;

Increased the annual contribution to Warren Library Association from $2,000 to $4,000;

Discussed pending legislation which would give another $200 annual boost to teachers with 30 years service and another which would allow teachers more than the $2,500 maximum now in effect during periods of absence.

Architects and a representative of the state department of instruction will be on hand to participate in that part of the program when the school building is officially turned over to Northern Area. Spring Storm

Meadville reported a ground depth of some eight inches.

Warren L. Gallagher, 36, of Transfer R. D. 1, Mercer County, was found dead in the cab of his truck on Route 18 near Guard in Erie County. The truck was stuck in the snow, with the motor running.

State police said they believed Gallagher, a driver for the Bazar Trucking Co. of Sharon, died of carbon monoxide fumes. An autopsy was ordered.

Highways were hazardous although generally cleared and salted Road crews worked through the night in many localities. A few rural schools in Erie County did not open because of poor traveling conditions.

The weight of the wet snow snapped some power and telephone lines in Erie and Crawford counties last night, bringing temporary interruption of service.

MONONGAHELA TRAGEDY

Pittsburgh (AP)—The body of a river boat cook was pulled from the Monongahela River yesterday a short while after she had been reported missing from the boat. The Allegheny County coroner's office identified her as Mrs. Agnes Anderson, 55, of East McKeesport, a cook on a U. S. Steel Corp. tugboat, the Duquesne. A spokesman said a note was found in her quarters indicating she had been despondent.

Texas Oilman Turns Over $2,000,000 to Church as a Tithe

Dallas (AP)—A Texas oilman turned over two million dollars to his church as a tithe yesterday after selling his petroleum company interests in a multimillion-dollar deal.

Toddie Lee Wynne of Dallas, president of the American Libery Oil Co., signed final papers transferring Amulco stock to American Petrofina, Inc., of New York.

The cross transaction reportedly involved an estimated 35 million dollars. Spokesmen said Wynne would get about 20 million after payment of outstanding debts.

Ten per cent of the net was given to the Texas Presbyterian Foundation, the largest gift it has ever received.

Wynne grew up as a Methodist but has been a member of the Presbyterian Church since 1925. He is a prominent layman.

Members of his family said they practiced tithing—the custom of giving a tenth or a specific share of wealth for religious or charitable purposes—for many years.

Dr. Hubert H. Kopper, director of the foundation, said $600,000 of the Wynne gift will be used for immediate financial help for three church institutions in Texas, and the rest would go to the endowment fund for use by various Presbyterian institutions in the state.

"Hot Cargo" Clause Is Frowned Upon by I.C.C.

Washington (AP)—An examiner recommended today that the Interstate Commerce Commission move to cancel operating permits of truck lines refusing to handle freight labeled "hot cargo" by the teamsters' union.

A "hot cargo" clause is incorporated in most teamsters' union labor contracts. Under such clauses, employers agreed their workers may refuse to handle goods held by the union to be "unfair" or "hot."

Unions use these terms to describe goods coming from establishments involved in a labor controversy.

Easter Egg Hunt at War Memorial Field Saturday, April 20

It was voted at Monday night's meeting of Chief Complanter Post No. 135 to hold the American Legion Annual Easter Egg Hunt at War Memorial Field on Saturday, April 20th, at 2:00 p. m. The Legionnaires will sponsor the popular Easter event for the children of the Community.

Officers of the Post declared the site of War Memorial Field would be used again this year as it eliminates the possible water hazard, the traffic tie-up, and the reluctance of parents to allow their smaller children to take part in the hunt on the field unaccompanied.

Other business to come before the meeting was the progress being made on the 28th District Convention which will be held in Warren on Saturday, July 20th. A huge parade is being planned in conjunction with this convention; also State Dept. Commander Joseph Gavenonis will be the principal speaker.

The convention accepted almost unanimously the selections of the union's Executive Board.

Reuther said President Eisenhower's brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, turned down an invitation to serve on the board because "of the pressure of many other duties," Dr. Eisenhower is president of Johns Hopkins University.

Sales and Use Tax Returns Forms Are Reported In Mail

More than 200,000 return forms, to be used in submitting sales and use tax collections for the first quarter of 1957, have been mailed to taxpayers. Secretary of Revenue Gerald A. Gleason said today.

The quarterly returns, accompanied by payment, are due in Harrisburg no later than midnight, April 30.

"I want to remind all taxpayers that the returns must be completed in full," Secretary Gleason said. "Returns that are not complete will be returned to the taxpayers, and this may subject the taxpayer to penalties for late filing."

Instructions for filing the quarterly returns accompanied each return form. Secretary Gleason pointed out. Additional information may be obtained by the taxpayers at any of the 22 local offices of the Bureau of Sales and Use Tax. Inquiries may also be addressed to the Harrisburg office, P. O. Box 483.

The newly designed return forms, which have the number "1" in the upper left hand corner, are the first to go out under the new system of quarterly reporting. The second quarter forms will be designated by the number "2" and will be mailed in July.

Secretary Gleason said that any taxpayer who has not received his pre-identified quarterly return form by April 10 should notify his local sales tax office or notify the Harrisburg office, so a duplicate may be mailed.

Warren Insurance Representative Is Presented Scroll

John D. Lesser, well known insurance man of Warren, who represents the Niagara Fire Insurance Company, a member company of the American Fire Insurance Group, has just been presented with the company's engrossed scroll in token of more than fifty years' representation by The Lesser Agency.

Presentation was made by W. D. Baker, fieldman for the company and accompanied by a letter from President J. Victor Herd which said:

"It is not often that I have the privilege of extending congratulations to an American agent on the attainment of a half century of representation of our organization. Fiftieth anniversaries are comparatively rare and it is with distinct pleasure that I extend my best wishes to you on this "double membership" in our Old Guard, that ever widening circle of those who have represented the companies of the American Fire Insurance Group for 25, 35, and in your case, 50 years.

"Without the loyalty and support of your agency through the years and the thousands of other members of the Old Guard, our American Fire Group would not have attained the outstanding position it holds in the insurance world today."

Mr. Lesser is the manager of The Lesser Agency which was established in 1910 by his father, the late Byron V. Lesser.

Local Photographer In Attendance At Int'l Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stoke, of Stoke Studio, Second avenue, have returned from Washington, D. C., where they attended the 1957 International convention of the Photographers' Association of America.

The convention drew thousands of professional portrait, commercial-illustrative, and industrial photographers. They learned the newest ideas and techniques in professional photography.

The convention was held in conjunction with the International Photographic Exposition, an immense "world's fair of photography" which showed new photographic products from the entire world. It was sponsored by the PA of A and seven other groups. Among speakers at the convention were Charles Rosher, Hollywood cinematographer who holds two "Oscars"; Wallace W. Elton, vice president of J. Walter Thompson Co.; Joseph H. Snyder, president of Color Corporation of America; John N. Ott Jr., time-lapse photographer who conducts a TV network show, "How Does Your Garden Grow?" and supplies film for Walt Disney nature movies; and Ralston B. Reid, advertising and sales promotion manager of the General Electric Co., Apparatus Sales Division.

An exhibit showed more than 1,600 professional pictures judged to be the best made in 1956. A foreign section included pictures by iron curtain photographers.

The Convention, at the Sheraton-Park hotel in Washington, lasted from Sunday, March 24, to Friday, March 29.

Don't Miss Page 3 In This Paper WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Theatre-goers of Warren vicinity will enjoy the antics of Moliere's famous comedy "The Would-Be Gentleman", when the Edinboro Collegiate Players are presented at 8:00 p. m. Saturday, April 27, in Beatty Junior High School auditorium by Girl Scout Troops 4 and 15.

This engaging dramatic performance is one of several special projects the girls are sponsoring in their endeavor to raise funds for attending "Rockwood", National Girl Scout Camp at Bethesda, Md., July 25-31.

In the cast are Edinboro State Teachers College students from all over the area, including David Merenick, of Warren, who handles the role of one of the lackeys.

Moliere's famous work satirizes Mr. Jourdain, whose desire it is to become an aristocrat, and the influence upon him of all the instructors engaged to that end.

Thus is created a series of hilariously funny scenes that make it one of the theatre's classic comedies dealing with the foibles of human nature.

Lawrence C. Vincent will direct "The Would-Be Gentleman"; Richard Lewicki is student director, with Joan Consider as art assistant; musical selections were written and will be directed by Mrs. Esther Campbell, head of Edinboro's music department; Eva Joyce Foster is choreographer; Bill Davis, costume designer. Among committee heads for the production's staging is Nancy Carlson, Ludlow student.

Tickets for the show were placed on sale yesterday and will be available from any Troop 4 or 15 member.

Desi Arnaz Opens Lavish New Hotel In Palm Springs

Palm Springs Calif. (AP)—Desi Arnaz, Cuba's answer to Conrad Hilton, has formally opened his newest venture—a multimillion-dollar hotel country club resort.

The onetime bongo player—now a titan of television—premiered the elaborate layout yesterday with an opening so fancy helicopters were used for taxis from the airport.

The hotel—called Desi Arnaz West Hills Hotel—adjoins the Indian Wells Country Club. Both are Arnaz enterprises.

Some idea of the hotel's luxury: It cost one million dollars and only has 42 rooms.

Each room comes equipped with its own private bar, original paintings, gold fleck draperies and private patio.

The main dining room has a unique sunken bar which features drinks from Desi's personal Cuban recipes.

One aide said the architect tested the drinks first and that's why he decided to make the bar sunken. He felt the customers wouldn't have so far to fall.

The house orchestra is the original Arnaz band. Desi says the only change is that a Mexican sings "Babalu" now.

"And much better," he added. The resort is but the latest chapter in one of Hollywood's most fabulous success stories.

When "I Love Lucy" first began on television, Desi was the unknown quantity. No one wanted him on the show but his wife, Lucille Ball.

As one network executive commented at the time:

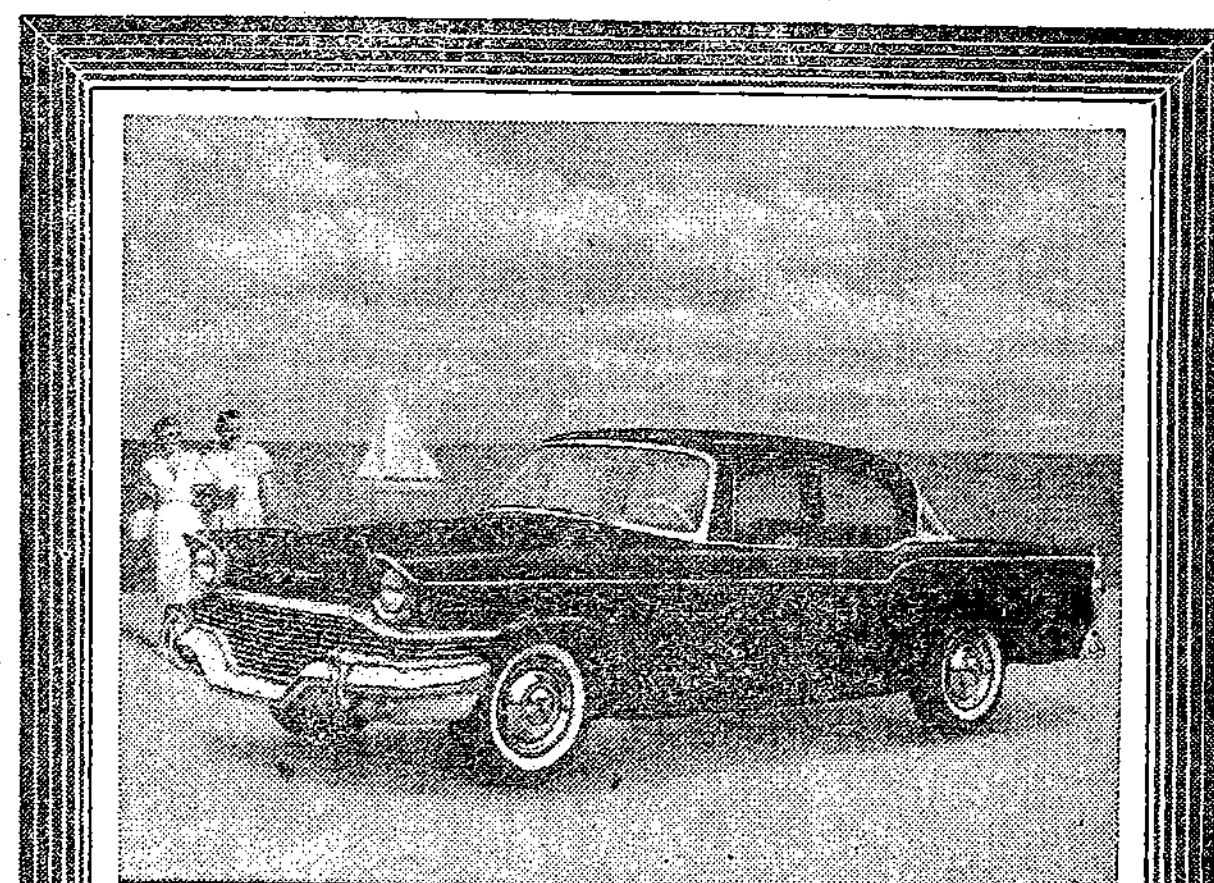

"The public will never swallow a story line about a red haired comedienne who is married to a Cuban husband."

That was in 1951.

Today Desi, with one of the sharpest minds in Hollywood, is boss and owner of Desilu, Inc., one of the world's largest television producers.

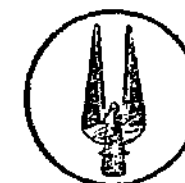

He owns his own studio—the same one he used to rent space from—and employs 800 people, more than some major lots.

He branched into the resort business after taking up golf only three years ago.
